On several occasions, Knigge sold heroin to undercover Gang Task Force Detectives. He was arrested on June 8th, after one of the heroin sales to an undercover detective. Knigge was subsequently charged with three counts of unlawful possession of a controlled substance with intent to deliver (class 1 felonies), one count of unlawful possession of a controlled substance with intent to deliver (class 2 felony), and four counts of unlawful possession of a controlled substance (class 4 felonies).
